

Joint Declaration on an Annual EU Day for the Victims of the Global Climate Crisis

The European Parliament, the Council and the European Commission decide together:

- To establish an annual “EU day for the victims of the global climate crisis”.
- To observe this “EU day for the victims of the global climate crisis” each year on 15 July beginning in 2023.
- To collaborate for the purpose of this annual “EU day for the victims of the global climate crisis” on joint initiatives commemorating said victims in Europe and worldwide, and to raise awareness among stakeholders and the general public of concrete steps they can take at their level to contribute to prevent these disasters from happening in the first place and, be better prepared for and respond to climate disasters.
