

---

Good Morning

On behalf of Mining Industry and Trade Chamber I would like to express our objection against entering into force changes in Emission Trading Scheme. In our opinion the conception of emission allowance reduction will strongly influence for cost increasing of electrical energy generation in Poland. This will lead to energy cost problems of many branch of industry. Moreover this is an attempt of changing regulation during process, that cannot be accepted.

Best Regards

Daniel Borsucki

Mining Industry and Trade Chamber representative