

Stakeholder meeting on monitoring, reporting and verification (MRV) of greenhouse gas emissions from ships

Opening (chaired by Fotis Karamitsos, DG MOVE)
10.00	Welcome & introduction by Fotis Karamitsos, DG MOVE
	Key note speech by Anne Bergenfelt, Cabinet of Commissioner Hedegaard
	Industry case study presented by Lars Christensen, Norden
	Questions and answers
Session 1 (chaired by Christine Berg, DG MOVE): Data availability and needs Should we focus on fuel consumption/ CO <sub>2</sub> emissions only or should the scope extended to data needed to calculate energy efficiency? Are these data already monitoring/ reported?
10.45	Introduction by chairperson
	Short presentations and panel discussion with: Carlos Alberto Pereira, EMSA Rachael Dillon, Global Shippers' Forum George Mantalos, Star Bulk Capt. Wolfram Guntermann , Hapag-Lloyd
12.30	Lunch
Session 2 (chaired by Elina Bardram, DG CLIMA) Entities in charge of data collection Who should collect the reports (public or private bodies)? How to ensure that the data are accessible for public authorities/ for others?
13.30	Introduction by chairperson
	Short presentations and panel discussion with: Lars Robert Pedersen, BIMCO Capt. Eugen H. Adami, Mastermind Shipmanagement Ltd, Cyprus Shipping Chamber Eirik Nyhus, DNV Godfrey Souter, UK Department for Transport
15.00	Coffee
Session 3 (chaired by Elina Bardram, DG CLIMA): Reporting and verification How should data be reported? Which tools should be used? How can a minimum level of data quality/ reliability been ensured (e.g. by monitoring plans, verification, enforcement measures)? Frequency of reporting?
15.15	Introduction by chairperson
	Short presentations and panel discussion with: Niels Mortensen, Maersk Helena Athoussaki, Carbon Positive

	Torsten Mundt, Germanischer Lloyd Jukka-Pekka Jalkanen, Finnish Meteorological Institute Lars Erik Mangset, WWF
	Closing
16.45	Summary and closure of the meeting by Mary Veronica Tovšak Pleterski, DG CLIMA