

EXPERT MEETING

ON EU ETS STRUCTURAL REFORM: INTRODUCTION OF A MARKET STABILITY RESERVE

25 June 2013, 13:45 – 17:00

Agenda

1. Opening Remarks

European Commission, Directorate-General for Climate Action

2. Expected market impacts of the proposal: The aim is to present and reflect on third party analyses of the expected impacts of the proposal, including on the price formation, market functioning and the evolution of the surplus.

Speakers:

- Itamar Orlandi, Bloomberg New Energy Finance
- Ingo Tschach, ICIS Tschach Solutions
- Trevor Sikorski, Energy Aspects
- Stig Schjolset, Thomson Reuters Point Carbon
- Mark Lewis, Kepler Cheuvreux

3. Individual design parameters: The aim is to reflect on the different parameters for the design and functioning of the reserve. This includes the proposed acceptable range for the total number of allowances in circulation and its expected effects.

Speakers:

- Felix Matthes, Öko-Institute
- Raphael Trotignon, Climate Economics Chair - Université Paris-Dauphine